

DNA TESTING AND GENEALOGY

Ann Raymont, from the Central Indiana DNA Interest Group (CIDIG), presents a two-part workshop: an overview of recent developments with commercial DNA testing and an explanation about using DNA testing to strengthen your genealogy research.

Saturday, October 6, 2018

Middlebury Community Public Library
101 E. Winslow St., Middlebury, IN 46540

9:30 a.m. Registration

10:00 a.m. Session 1 Adding DNA To Your Genealogy Toolkit

Overview of how DNA testing and matching works;
Explore what to do to improve your odds for success;
Three short case studies demonstrating how DNA
can help your genealogy.

11:00-11:15 a.m. Break with light refreshments

11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. Session 2
My AncestryDNA Results Are In, Now What?

Guided tour through the AncestryDNA website;
Learn tips and secrets that help you identify how you're related to those "cousins" and who your common ancestors are.
Suggest bringing your tablet/laptop. Wi-Fi is available.

Pre-registration cost of the workshop is $20.00.

Check payable to Friends of the Library; mail to library.

Deadline is October 1st.

Cost of registration at the door: $25.00.

Organized by the Middlebury Community Public Library, with assistance from Elkhart County Genealogical Society.

Middlebury Community
Public Library