The Boston Girl

by Anita Diamant

Bestselling Author

Addie Baum, the spirited daughter of immigrant Jewish parents, was born in 1900. Growing up in the North End of Boston, a teeming multicultural neighborhood, Addie's intelligence and curiosity take her to a world her parents can't imagine—a world of short skirts, movies, celebrity culture, and new opportunities for women. Addie wants to finish high school and dreams of going to college. She wants a career and to find true love. The 85 year-old Addie recounts her adventures with humor and compassion for the naive girl she once was.

News of the World

by Paulette Jiles

National Book Award Finalist

Captain Jefferson Kyle Kidd drifts through northern Texas after the Civil War performing live readings from newspapers to paying audiences hungry for news of the world. At a stop in Wichita Falls, Captain Kidd is offered an astonishing $50 gold piece to deliver the orphan Johanna to relatives near San Antonio. The ten-year-old, who was captured and raised by Indians since she was a small child, has recently been recovered by the U.S. Army. The Captain knows the journey will be difficult but accepts. As the miles pass, Johanna and the Captain forge a tender bond that marks the difference between life and death on their treacherous journey.

Girl Waits with Gun

by Amy Stewart

New York Times Editors Choice

Constance Kopp and her sisters suffer a run-in with a ruthless crook in the summer of 1914 outside of Paterson N.J. Constance teams up with a local sheriff to exact justice. As a war of bricks, bullets and threats ensues, Constance realizes that this racketeer's history is more daunting than she originally thought. But now that she is on the case, he won't get away.

Inspired by real events, this quick-witted tale is about one woman rallying the courage to stand up for and grow into herself.
